Deepak Obhrai makes multiple funding announcements for Calgary East

March 15, 2013 - Deepak Obhrai, Member of Parliament & Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, was pleased to announce funding this week for infrastructure improvement projects supporting a local community centre and two athletic centre's in his constituency of Calgary East.

"I am pleased to announce this much needed funding from my government" said Mr. Obhrai. "Since forming government we have worked hard to see community investment shared equally and fairly across Canada. The Community Infrastructure Improvement Fund is a main piece of our commitment in maintaining and improving community focal points to the level Canadians need and expect."

The funding announced this week was $20,540 for Marlborough Park Community Centre, $67,425 for the East Calgary Twin Arena, and $250,000 for the Bob Bahan Aquatic and Fitness Centre.
