Deepak Obhrai praises Canada's ethnic media for service to their communities and for highlighting diversity

(Ottawa) The Honourable Deepak Obhrai, P.C., M.P., made the following statement today in the House of Commons:

“Mr. Speaker, today, I would like to acknowledge the rise of the ethnic media in Canada. It is filling the niche that mainstream media has ignored. It caters to the needs of the ethnic community by not only acting as a link to the home country, but also by highlighting the achievements of members of the ethnic community.

Some of those involved, like Shan and Jaya Chandrasekar, have been recognized by their entry into the hall of fame.

To all those from coast to coast who work in the ethnic media, I sincerely thank them for their hard work and dedication, despite numerous barriers and hardship. This media highlights our Canadian diversity.”
