Hon. Deepak Obhrai appointed to Opposition Shadow Cabinet as International Development critic

(Ottawa) Hon. Rona Ambrose, Leader of the Official Opposition, today appointed Hon. Deepak Obhrai, P.C., M.P. to the Shadow Cabinet as International Development critic.

Mr. Obhrai brings in depth experience to this portfolio, having served since 2006 in international affairs during the Conservative Party's time in government.

In January 2006, Mr. Obhrai was appointed Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, a position he held until the last election in October 2015. In March 2008, he was given the additional responsibility of Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of International Cooperation. In 2013, he was given the additional responsibility of Parliamentary Secretary for International Human Rights.

Hon. Obhrai said: "I am honoured to be in the Official Opposition's Shadow Cabinet. I look forward to being part of an effective opposition caucus that will hold the government accountable."
