Deepak Obhrai welcomes Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi to Ottawa. Says Canada-India relations will get better and stronger with the visit

(Ottawa, April 15, 2015) The Hon. Deepak Obhrai, P.C., M.P. & Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Foreign Affairs and for International Human Rights, today participated in a working luncheon with visiting Prime Minister of India His Excellency Narendra Modi, hosted by Prime Minister Stephen Harper on Parliament Hill.

“I am pleased to be part of this historical visit by the Indian Prime Minister to Canada. Relations between Canada and India have seen a tremendous boost in all spheres since our government came to power nine years ago. We have made India a priority nation for Canada. It will only get better and stronger from here,” Mr. Obhrai said.

On the evening of April 14th, Mr. Obhrai was part of the official Canadian government delegation that welcomed Prime Minister Modi to Canada at the Ottawa airport. Mr. Obhrai will be accompanying the Indian Prime Minister to events in Toronto and Vancouver.
