Deepak Obhrai calls on the Liberal Government to provide more assistance to victims of Fiji cyclone

CALGARY – Conservative Party International Development Critic Deepak Obhrai issued the following statement today calling on International Development Minister Marie-Claude Bibeau to provide more humanitarian assistance to the cyclone victims of Fiji:

“Fijians are reeling from the devastating effects of one of the most powerful cyclones recorded in the southern hemisphere. The damage caused by Cyclone Winston is massive and the country is involved in a major cleanup and recovery effort.”

“Canada must do more than it has pledged, and must do so immediately to support emergency relief operations. The Fijian diaspora in Canada stands ready to work with the government in all aspects of this humanitarian initiative.”
