TO: The Honourable Deepak Obhrai, PC, MP.

Sir:

I just wanted to thank you, and your extraordinary staff here in both Calgary and Ottawa, for all the great work you do with the Government of Canada and the Calgary SE Community.

It was an honour receiving the Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal (2002) from Her Honour Lieutenant Governor Lois Hole, thanks to you and your office. In 2012 I received the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal, again partly thanks to you. With the changes in riding boundaries at the federal level, you are no longer our Member of Parliament. I wanted to thank you (and your team) for the years of dedicated and faith service to our area.

I would also like to congratulate you on becoming a Privy Councillor of The Privy Council of Canada. It is indeed a great and high honour and well deserved. In the 35 years I been a volunteer veterans and seniors advocate (addiction, mental health, medical support and career guidance) across Canada, U.S.A. and the U.K., I met very few politicians as dedicated and loyal to the people of a riding.

Thank you for your outstanding dedication and loyalty. Please thank your exceptional team / staff as well, as they have also done great work.

Kindest regards,

Michael Detheridge
